

DANIEL BUDISH

PROJECT DEVELOPER

Cornell University

Daniel is the President of Gaslamp Capital, a historic tax credit consulting firm founded in 2015. He holds degrees in urban planning and city design from Cornell University and The London School of Economics.

Daniel has dedicated his career to renovating and preserving historic buildings across the country through the implementation of innovative financing structures. As a native Clevelander he has long thought about how he could best utilize his skills in tax credit finance to benefit the LGBTQ community.

This project is a dream come true for Daniel due to its combination of historic preservation, its intense focus on philanthropy, community development, and of course - all the drag.

BETSY FIGGIE

PROJECT DEVELOPER

Case Western Reserve University

Betsy is President of Your CFO Resource, a structured finance consulting firm founded in 2005, specializing in tax-credit enhanced projects typically utilizing New Markets Tax Credits.

Having closed upwards of $1 billion in transactions over her career, Betsy is thrilled to be co-developing the LGBT Hub and serving as one of the project's stewards. Betsy believes that one of the most critical elements of the project is ensuring that LGBT youth have a safe place to play, explore, connect and grow.

Betsy has degrees from Ohio Wesleyan University, The Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University, L'école Commerciale de la Chambre de Commerce et d'Industrie de Paris, and the International Culinary Arts and Sciences Institute.
